GUTHRIE MURDERER IN NEWKIRK JAIL

SHERIFF ELUDES PURSUING MOB
AND AFTER ALL-NIGHT RUN
LANDS NEGRO IN JAIL.

Guthrie, Okla., Sept. 8.—Lou Green, negro slayer of Police Officers Lou Muxlow and L. W. Caldwell, is in the county jail at Newkirk, 80 miles north of this city, where he was taken by Sheriff John Mahoney early Monday after being pursued by several automobiles loaded with Guthrie citizens intent on lynching the black.

Sheriff Mahoney arrested Green shortly after the killing Sunday afternoon and taking charge of County

Clerk Charles Olsen's automobile, ordered Olsen to drive him north, and was borne 20 miles, before a waning supply of gasoline compelled him to desert the car.

Directing Olsen to continue in the car, Sheriff Mahoney took Green into the brush. The pursuing cars from Guthrie followed the Olsen car, and Mahoney flagged a northbound Santa Fe train at 5 o'clock this morning, taking his prisoner to Newkirk.

Sheriff Mahoney said he and his prisoner had a thrilling all-night flight to escape a posse of Guthrie and sympathetic country citizens, who followed in automobiles and on horseback, determined to lynch the negro should he be overtaken. Shortly after daybreak the sheriff said he flagged the northbound Santa Fe near Perry and beyond pursuit.

According to Sheriff Mahoney, Green made a complete confession of the killing, saying the officers had raided him so frequently he had become exasperated and when Muxlow hit him over the head in attempting arrest, pulled an automatic and began firing. After Green had shot both men to death, he is said to have beaten Caldwell with the policeman's own stick in retaliation of a blow at the hands of the officer some months ago during a raid.

County officials say they will bring Green here for trial as soon as danger from mob violence is passed.

JUDGMENT FOR USURY.

Interesting Case Before Jury Heard at Chickasha.

Chickasha, Okla., Sept. 8.—One of the most important cases to be tried in the present term of the Grady county court and one that has attracted a great deal of interest, was decided by a jury when Edgar Howell was given a judgment for $28 damages and $20 attorney fees against the Farmers State Bank of Tuttle, in a usury case.

The gist of the case is that Howell borrowed $55 from the Tuttle bank on April 25, 1912, for a term of six months. Nothing was said about the amount of interest to be charged, according to the evidence, but Howell found out later that he had signed a note for $69 or the amount of the principal plus $14, nearly 51 per cent interest. By the laws of Oklahoma, 10 per cent is the legal interest and if one is charged over that amount he may recover twice the full amount of the interest paid, in addition to attorney fees, hence, Howell sued for $28 and $20 attorney fees.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 9.—National Association of Fish and Game commissioners here will discuss "Recent Progress in Oceanography," and form a plan to ask the government to protect species of fish rapidly becoming extinct.

Washington, Sept. 9.—The administration is said to be not a little concerned over reports that many Americans are giving encouragement to Huerta in his stand, because of the apparently rash advice of President Wilson to Americans to leave Mexico without "due consideration for expense and suffering involved in hasty flight." The fund set aside for the relief of refugees at Vera Cruz is largely deficient.

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 9.—Willie Ritchie, American champion, and Freddy Welsh, English, French and Australian lightweight champion, are matched to fight twenty rounds here tonight. Ritchie is the favorite in betting.

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 9.—Ex-President Mellen's friends resent the statement that the new position created, giving him $30,000 salary was for the purpose of helping him make up stock losses. They declare his advice is indispensable in railroad organization.

Indian Chief Weds.

Caddo, Okla., Sept. 8.—Victor M. Locke Jr., of Antlers, principal chief of the Choctaw nation, and Mrs. Vivian Robertson of Caddo were married at the home of the bride. Only the immediate friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Locke left at once for Palmer Lake, Colo., to be with Mrs. Locke's brother, who is very sick.

PECAN CROP IS PROLIFIC.

Drouth Has Not Affected the Yield in the Arkansas Valley.

Tulsa, Okla., Sept. 8.—The pecan crop in the Arkansas valley is one crop that has not been affected by the drouth. It will be the largest in years. Trees standing in cultivated ground show the results of such care by being loaded with much larger nuts than the trees in the timber. Oak trees are bearing many acorns and farmers will gather them for supplemental hog feed.

Tulsa Man Drowns.

Tulsa, Okla., Sept. 8.—George McClenathan, 28 years of age, clerk in a local hardware store at Bartlesville, was drowned in the Park lake at Sand Springs Sunday afternoon. He was a strong swimmer and physicians attribute death partly to heart failure. The body was recovered inside of twenty minutes and the pulmotor was applied, ineffectively. The body will be taken to his home in Iola, Kan., Monday.

Claims He Owns Court House Site.

Oklahoma City, Sept. 8.—District Judge George W. Clark has allowed John C. Adams to amend a petition filed by him in court alleging that he is the owner of a tract of land almost within the business district of the city and valuable. The court house stands on the land, which is also thickly built up. Adams claims he homesteaded the tract at the opening of the territory.

T. J. Pollock of Newport is in the city on business.

J. B. Spragins is thinning out the squirrel crop on the bayou west of Lane Grove this afternoon.

WHO WILL HELP THIS LITTLE GIRL

JUST A SMALL AMOUNT NEEDED TO MAKE ORPHAN EVERLASTINGLY GRATEFUL.

How many of you grouchy old bachelors will contribute a dollar toward restoring speech to a little four-year-old orphan girl? All of you that will agree to slough off one of the dollars that you will blow in with the gang some time this week and give it to this worthy cause, please send check to Mrs. Curtis, probation officer at the county court house.

The little girl, Emma Temple, four years of age, is an exceptionally bright child but has never spoken a word, her hearing is not impaired in the least and surgeons who have examined her say that they can positively restore her to speech by an operation. Now the question is who is going to pay for this operation? It does not require much money, as the surgeons have agreed to do it for practically nothing, but the little child must be cared for while convalescing and for that reason Mrs. Curtis thinks the old bachelors of the city should bear the burden.

Come across, fellows, put yourself in the child's place for an instant and then realize what you would think of people who would not contribute a dollar to grant you speech and you will send that check today. Mail or send contributions to Mrs. Curtis at the court house, and she will do the rest.

Your telephone bill for the month is past due; unless paid by 6 p. m. of the 10th, no discount will be allowed. Pioneer Telephone and Telegraph Co.—Advertisement.
